Greetings from Northside Travel!

We'd love to keep you informed and 'on board' with the exciting new travel deals available today.

In an effort to reach you by email rather than 'snail mail', we invite you to visit our new website and update your contact information.

All new emails will be entered each quarter for a chance to win your choice of limo transportation or overnight lodging before your next vacation.*

Until then... we're ready when you are!

 Prizes valued at $200; certain restrictions apply.*
